Dr. Jayaprakash Narayan (JP) is a physician by training and a public servant by choice. After serving 16 years in IAS, Dr. JP started Lok Satta (www.loksatta.org), a grassroots movement to impart positive pressure to institutionalize good governance in 1996. Since then Dr. JP has been a relentless crusader for democratic and electoral reforms and the fight against corruption in India. He was awarded Rotary Manava Seva Award in 2002 and the Yudhvir Memorial award for "his relentless fight against corruption".

Ms. Anu Agha is Chairperson of Thermax group of Companies, the leading Indian player in energy and environment management. She is one of the outstanding women entrepreneurs of India, and a corporate leader committed to India's pluralism. Ms. Agha has worked extensively on the subjects of corporate governance, value-based management and corporate social responsibility. She has started 4 centers to educate the slum children in Pune with the help of an NGO from Mumbai.
